Miss Lizzle Boyd and others.

The first pinnic of the season was given a starday last, by the young people of the neighborhood, in the delightful sugar grove on the farm of John W. McColloch Esq. The rain which set in after dinner interrupted the out-door festivities, and the merry maideas and their escorts were dompelled to seek that seclusion which the nearest dwelling afforded. But they shad a jolly time all the same. Mayer's fine cotillion band furnished the music. The thanks of the young folks are extended to Mr. McColloch and family, for their generous hospitality, also to Messre. Chas. Kyle, Will waddel and Frank Delaplain, for their untiring efforts in arranging such a pleasnt social event. They propose holding a second plenie at the same place Saturday, June 12th.

three to three on the Duff question, indirectly. It is understood that the three old members were in favor of Mr. Duff's reappointment, while the recently elected members opposed it. No objection was made to the present Superintendent as a man or as a Superintendent, but it was claimed by the new members that their constituents instructed them to oppose Mr. Duff's continuance.

The new M. E. Church building was dedicated to the worship of God to-day, dedicated to the worship of God to-day, by Mathew Simpson, senior Bishop of the M. E. Church of the United States. The sermon was one of great power and was listened to with the deepest attention by the congregation. His text was from Revelations, 3d chap., 21st verse.

At the close of the sermon the report of the trustees was read, which showed that the cost of the church thus far was $9,000.

$8,200 of this was either paid or provided for, leaving $300 still unprovided for. $540 was raised at once, while the other $260

School Celebration Rains—Census Enumera a and Monroe Counties.

Decoration day passed without general notice here. The M. E. Sabbath School cel-ects for farm crops were not very satis zion Saturday and Sunday will do a grea deal toward reviving the farmers' hopes which may yet be realized. The weathe has been excellent for wheat and that crop never looked better. There is considera ble surplus wheat in this immediate harvest prospects.

The farmers are through sheep-shearing and from all comes the cheering news of the finest and heaviest clips ever secured and from all comes the cheering news of the finest and heaviest clips ever secured. The growing corn and potato crops are tooking finely. The bugs are plenty and troublesome; the recent rains have destroyed many of them. The seventeen-year locusts have made their appearance in force, and their dull hum is heard in all directions. The trees, both fruit and 2nd forest, are literally covered.

The West Virginia Association for the Promotion of Holiness commenced their first services for the season Friday last. The large tent, or tabernacle, as it is called, it pitched near the mouth of Short Creek. Rev. J. P. Thatcher is in charge, assisted by a number from Wheeling, among whom we noticed Mr. Melvin Richards, Mr. J. Hutchins, Mr. Tomilson, Miss Lizzie Boyd and others.

The first picnic of the season was given Saturday last, by the young people of the resignburhood in the delightful sugar wishes of a large circle of friends follow them.

James Smiley, a highly respected young man, a resident of this place, died last Saurday, atter a lingering illness.

Capt. James Dean left on Monday for Chicago to witness the great Convention. Miss Hester Kefford, an estimable young colored lady of Bailey's Addition, died on Monday and was buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery on Tuesday morning.
